The Bordignon Camillo Company was founded in 1973 in Rosà, a town near Bassano del Grappa (Vicenza) renowned as a center of excellence in period furniture production.

Progenitor Camillo Bordignon's mastery soon made him the cabinet-maker in highest demand by the most prestigious Italian and international families for the creation of truly unique furniture, veritable masterpieces of the carpenter's craft.

Bordignon Camillo intends to reinforce its leadership in the high quality, high design furniture sector through its consolidated tradition in period furniture in particular and the Made in Italy luxury segment in general, the unquestioned quality of its finished products and raw materials, and the exclusive design of its collections.
